W7MGG	Gary
KJ7YL	Steve
N7WUB	Frank
N7YH	Bill
KK7M	Loren

We served five people. We administered five tests.

Four passed: 2 element #2 and 2 element #4

As a result of all our volunteer effort, we brought two new Techs into our hobby. One was a youngster, age 12, who was excited about his new found love, and also happy to have been awarded membership in our Hams Club for the next year. We sent $60.00 in fees to ARRL.

Today's Team:

W7MGG	Gary
N7WUB	Frank
KK7M	Loren

The new question pool for General Class went into effect on 1 July 2004.

Event Housing Auth.
It was noted by one member that we should send a Letter of Thanks to the Baker Heights Housing for the free use of their facility for License Examinations and for the Christmas party every year for several years now. The Providence Medical Center should also receive a Letter of Thanks for the free use of their conference room also. The club secretary will take responsibility for issuing these letters.

President Steve said he will be working on the Nominating Committee and Ham of the Year Award for next year.

President Steve presented a program about the ICOM transceivers on the current market. The program was well received by the members present.

The meeting was adjourned at 0915 R.

Respectfully submitted,
Gary N Whiting, W7MGG
Secretary
